

BE A HOST CHURCH!

June 1 – August 10, 2011

Mission: To give college students an opportunity to explore their call to ministry by providing an environment that will introduce them to several different areas of ministry in the local church.

Do you want to be a church who:

- Encourages young men and women to consider their call to ministry?
- Provides a ten-week experience for college students in your church?
- Gives students an opportunity to learn while serving?
- Supports their first experiences in teaching and preaching?
- Prays for college students who desire to be pastors?
- Brings clarity to a young person's calling?
- Develops young church leaders?
- Mentors the younger generation in their faith journey?

Talk to your pastor about becoming an Isaiah Project Host Church this summer.

The Kentucky Board of Ordained Ministry will provide a qualified young man or woman to serve at your church; half of the intern's salary ($2,000.00); training for your pastor and lay leaders; and opportunities for feedback along the way.

Go to www.isaiahprojectumc.com to learn more and sign up by March 1, 2011. Or contact Mark Dickinson: mark@florenceumc.com

Isaiah Project 2011

Paid Summer Internships, June 1-August 10

For college-age women and men exploring the possibility of a call into ministry: A hands-on experience in the local church

Meet other men and women your age considering pastoral ministry as a vocation. You will receive $4000.00 for the internship, as well as free housing. Live and serve among a local church family for ten weeks, spending time with the pastor and lay leaders in all facets of ministry:

- preaching,
- teaching,
- administration,
- pastoral care,
- evangelism,
- age-level ministry, and
- local outreach.

You can read stories from 2010 interns, find the application and more information at our website at www.isaiahprojectumc.com or e-mail Mark Dickinson, mark@florenceumc.com. Application deadline is March 1, 2011.

Then I heard the Lord calling,
"Whom should I send ...
Who will go for us?
And I said, "Lord, I'll go! Send me."
Isaiah 6:8
